

PELVIC BINDER APPLICATION PROCEDURE

Indications

- High risk mechanism of injury (e.g. falls, crush, MVC, auto vs ped) AND one of the following:
 - Pelvic instability
 - Lower back, hip, or groin pain
- The intention of application is to reduce potential life-threatening bleeding and provide stability for a suspected pelvic fracture

Equipment

- Commercial pelvic binder
(e.g. SAM Pelvic Sling II, T-Pod)

Position patient in supine position

Slide pelvic binder under patient, positioning and applying device according to manufacturer's recommendations

Critical Information

- Contraindication: Pediatric patients